Our libraries now offer an online option called Beanstack that children and students can use to log their reading and library activities for our 2017 Summer Reading Program. A link to Beanstack can be located on our web site, www.moglibraries.org. By logging your progress on Beanstack you will earn free books and if you reach your goal you will be entered in a drawing for this year's grand prizes. If you have questions about Beanstack or any of this summer's programs please call your library and remember that library programs are free and open to the public.
